Are you a young lawyer who is tired of never having your day in Court? Today is your lucky day!

For the first time in 13 years, the Young Bar Meets Bankruptcy Bench is joining forces with the Junior Lawyers Training Program to host a joint oral advocacy workshop at the Boston U.S. Bankruptcy Court. Participating attendees will have the great opportunity to argue a “mock” motion before a panel of esteemed judges and litigators (and a room of their peers) in you guessed it, a Courtroom! Non-participating attendees will have the great opportunity to observe their peers, learn tips and strategies about oral advocacy, ask questions during the Q&A segment, and network at the Program’s reception. This event is open at no-charge to all, including non-BBA members and law students.

If you would like to argue a motion, please email Jenna Kim at jkim@bostonbar.org.

Non-BBA members can register through the BBA’s website or by emailing Jenna Kim directly at jkim@bostonbar.org

With questions, or if you need help registering for the event, please contact Jenna Kim at jkim@bostonbar.org.
